

Nathan Shafer bio

Nathan Shafer is a new media artist, author and special education teacher from Alaska. He is one of the founding members of both the Meme-Rider Media Team, an art collective founded in 2000 designing early internet memes, and Manifest.AR, an International art collective initiating mobile augmented reality works to the general public. His current work, the Alaskan comic book Wintermoot, received a Creative Capital award in 2020.