

Allison Akootchook Warden bio

Allison Akootchook Warden is an Iñupiaq poet who lives in Fairbanks, Alaska and is a tribal member of the Native Village of Kaktovik. Her poem, 'we acknowledge ourselves' was recently featured in Poetry Magazine and she also was a featured poet for their podcast series. She recently collaborated as a poet for a hyphen-labs project for Google Arts and Cultures. Her poems have also been installed as part of the 2017- 2018 'Unsettled' exhibition, which debuted at the Nevada Museum of the Arts, and toured to both the Palm Springs Art Museum and also the Anchorage Museum. Her poem, "portal traveler" is forthcoming in Alaska Quarterly Review's winter 2022/23 edition